Anzac Day: An Opportunity to Reflect
Sunday April 25, 2021 - 10.30am to 11.30am
Richardson’s Lookout - Marrickville Peace Park
(cnr Richards Avenue & Holt Crescent in Marrickville 2204)

Join us to:
• Respect victims of war, including those who died in battle, those who suffered physical and psychological injuries, as well as their families who endured grief and hardship as a result.
• Reflect on the historical distortions associated with the Anzac legend.
• Call for official recognition of the Frontier Wars, Australia’s first war involving a series of violent engagements and massacres of Indigenous people resulting in the dispossession of their land and territory.
• Reflect on how to build a culture of peace, an independent foreign policy and a commitment to collective security internationally.

Program:
• Speakers include Jennifer Newman (Acknowledgement of Country), Linda Burney MP (Member for Barton) and Jo Blackman (MPG).
• Other contributions from participants welcome.

Event hosted by Marrickville Peace Group (MPG) - Inquiries: Nick 0420 526 929
